Wholesale Grocers
AND TEA DEALERS.

JAMES KYLE, 114 Warren St., New York, furnishes to the trade all sizes of plain and fancy colored Tea Caddies, holding from 2 to 20 lbs., fabricated, fac simile of the latest cargoes of green and black Teas, having every appearance of original packages, and being made neat and light, and so that the smaller ones will rest in the larger ones, can be transported to any part of the country at a small expense. Merchants from the South and West would find the plan of putting up Teas a great deal much cheaper, and more satisfactory, than to have them re-packed in New York; and extra fine Teas put up in 6, 8, 10 and 15 lb packages, will sell more readily, and at a better price, than by the chest. Fancy painted, lacquered and gilded Caddies, and Chinese Images, beautiful for window show, are also furnished. Dealers will please call and examine as soon as they arrive in the city, that time may be had to get them up to order, in time to ship with other goods. A List of Prices will be sent to any address, by mail, that may desire it.

CELEBRATED CATHOLICON,
For the Relief and Cure of Suffering Females.

IT STANDS [illegible] called Female Complaints [illegible] how severe or how long standing.

The Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in a better condition.

I have no hesitation in saying Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon is invaluable in uterine diseases generally. I have used it in Fluor Albus, Amenorrhœa, [illegible] and in cases of extensive ulceration of the [illegible] and os uteri. It is worthy of the notice of the [illegible]

The Catholicon is doing good service here. All [illegible] that have tried the medicine have been benefited but one—and that one nothing will help.
Truly Yours,
WM. LAIRD HAZLETT, M. D.,
July 6th, 1854. [illegible]

I must say, from my own experience and observations in my practice, it has proved to be the best and safest remedy for the diseases for which it is recommended, viz: that of female weakness, such as Prolapsus Uteri, Fluor Albus, and all irregularities [illegible]
D. Y. FOOTE, M. D.,

IN NEW QUARTERS!

ON AND AFTER MONDAY, 20th November, I can be found in my

New Brick Ware-House,

Ready to do all kinds of PRODUCE BUSINESS. Will Buy or Store Grain, on good terms.

The danger from Fire is but little, as I keep a faithful man to watch the house, who goes around it every hour during the night. I am now having made an engine to throw water all over the house in five minutes.

Orders to buy or store Grain or Flour solicited.

Wholesale Grocers AND TEA DEALERS.

JAMES KYLE, 114 Warren St., New York, furnishes to the trade all sizes of plain and fancy colored Tea Caddies, holding from 2 to 20 lbs., fac simile of the latest cargoes of green and black Teas, having every appearance of original packages, and being made neat and tight, and so that the smaller ones will nest in the larger ones, can be transported to any part of the country at a small expense. Merchants from the South and West would find the plan of putting up Teas at home much cheaper, and more satisfactory, than to have them re-packed in New York; and extra fine Teas put up in 6, 8, 10 and 15 lb packages, will sell more readily, and at a better price, than by the chest. Fancy painted, lacquered and gilded caddies, and Chinese Images, beautiful for window, show, are also furnished. Dealers will please call and examine as soon as they arrive in the city, that time may be had to get them up to order, in time to ship with other goods. A List of Prices will be sent to any address, by mail, that may desire it.

Temperance Bill Passed the Senate!

MADISON, March 16, 1855.

IN SENATE

Petitions

By Mr Gibson, for a ferry on Red Cedar river

Bills

By Mr Gibson charter of Sallwater & Ferry Co [illegible] Sutherland, amending [illegible] act [illegible] fishing lines on Rock river

The list of bills passed [illegible] included the bill for the purchase of a copy of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary for each school district in the state for which to be paid to twenty are out of the library money. Some amendment [illegible] which brings it back to the Assembly for concurrence

The Liquor Bill was reported back from the Special Committee with a substitute, being the Assembly bill in effect but amended and shaped more stringently and except [illegible] manufactured to be purchased in limited quantities for use at home. No action was taken in the morning, but the whole afternoon was spent upon the subject

Several of the Senators who opposed the [illegible] all [illegible] were very severe in censuring the motives of the members who advocated the amendment—insisting that it was done for the purpose of obtaining votes. Messrs Wakely and Harvey answered with ability denying these motives and insisting that as temperance men they were bound to [illegible] and their districts and to the whole State, and to enact a law which, while efficient should be as correct as possible.—A substitute by Mr Eldridge was rejected.

The substitute was adopted 13 to 7 and the bill ordered to a third reading 14 to 6. Mr [illegible] moved to suspend the rules and take the [illegible] Mr Hart said that Mr [illegible] who was necessarily absent, had desired to have the final vote delayed. He would doubtless vote against the bill but he (Mr H) thought the courtesy should be extended to him. Mr Olmsted and Mr Sutherland both said that they had remained here all the week so as to be present on the final vote, and now desired that it should be taken. The vote on the passage was taken, and resulted as follows:

AYES—Messrs Bashford, Clement, Devoy, [illegible] Harvey, [illegible], Rymert, Sutherland, Wakely, [illegible] Wortham, [illegible]—14.

ASSEMBLY—Petitions

By Mr Merrill from W H Folsom [illegible] Referred to Judiciary Committee

By Mr Judson [illegible] Ayer and others [illegible] Militia bill

By Mr [illegible] removal of [illegible]

Bills

By Mr Wharry to vacate plat of Newport, and [illegible] plat of Wisconsin

By Mr Davis to vacate [illegible] plat of Newport

By Mr A Taylor to repeal the Constitution [illegible] (This bill was rejected)

By Mr Gary authorizing [illegible] Millet [illegible]

By Mr Stevens [illegible] Clark county

Among the Reports, Mr Turner from the Judiciary Committee on Claims, reported favorably on bill for protection of rights of Married Women, proposing to suggest some amendments in committee of the whole.

Mr Davis, from Committee on Corporations, reported back [illegible] the [illegible] bridge bill without a recommendation, the committee being unable to agree upon it

Mr Vliet from select committee, reported favorably on 2d Ward [illegible] bill

All the bills on the [illegible] but two were passed. One of the [illegible] was a bill to [illegible] of [illegible] from the record in the Register's office Milwaukee [illegible] swamp land tracts, of which there are some 1220 in that district

On motion of Mr Hall, the bill to repeal the act of last winter providing for taxing railroads which was the special order for yesterday had been passed over, was taken up and, in order to bring a question before the Assembly, Mr Hull moved the indefinite postponement of the bill.—On this motion an interesting debate occupied the rest of the morning

Mr Goss first spoke briefly against the proposition

Mr Earnest followed in favor. He said he would not deny but that the present law was unconstitutional, he thought its repeal, and thrown out with the law which prevented the property of the farmer unjust taxes upon our railroads would exert so an influence to drive out the foreign capital which we so much needed to build them. Waukesha county, a very intelligent and [illegible] that county should prevent others from obtaining the same advantage by compelling the roads to pay [illegible] or a great portion of their tax.

Mr Martin took a different view of the subject from some others. He believed that the lands taken for railroad purposes under charters from the State were merged in the franchise, and can only be taxed as personal property—as decided in the hands of its owner. He was [illegible] this view by citing several judicial decisions. He had been in favor of repealing the present law because [illegible] Legislature had no right to compel the [illegible] to pay the taxes twice. But [illegible] were willing to pay the taxes to the State perhaps it was [illegible]

Mr Wakely said that it was the doctrine [illegible] the property by the [illegible] had been [illegible] would have been [illegible]

Mr Cary did not believe in the doctrine. If carried out it would include mill dam property and all other franchises of the kind. These roads have power to take and hold an unlimited quantity of land, and it was not denied that one company in the State had already possession of some 40,000 acres. Would this be exempt from the [illegible] taxation?

Mr Goss said that he thought that members were [illegible] of the obstacles which they proposed to place in the way of building railroads in this State when they tried to repeal this law and they would have cause to regret that they had [illegible] the roads to the strife and prejudice of town assessors, for temporary local benefit. He dwelt at some length upon the benefit which one company, the Mil & Miss., had been to the State, claiming that according to an estimate made by Mr Vliet its road had enhanced the value of the lands lying within 10 miles of its line to an amount three times the cost of the road. His own county and Columbia county had been vastly enhanced in the value of their lands by only the location of roads in them, the roads being in course of construction. The towns along the line of the present roads have no right to ask that their [illegible] should be permitted to absorb the revenues of the roads. The farmers who had mortgaged their farms to aid the Mil & Miss. R R did not do so solely to make money, but from a patriotic desire to enrich the county. The Constitution expressly gave power to the Legislature to say what property should be taxed. As to the run or that a company had acquired a large quantity of land he knew of no such thing. The La Crosse Co had had a quasi title to about 40,000 acres of lands only while being assigned and had disposed of it for a consideration. Nothing had been [illegible] or lost. The company would never have had anything to do with it with his consent

Mr Gary after some further remarks, moved to refer the bill to a special committee. Lost

Mr Stevens said that he should go for the indefinite postponement because it was impossible to get uniform taxation in the different towns of the state

Mr A. Taylor favored the motion,

Mr Randall spoke against, re-iterating the arguments advanced the other day, and advancing others in answer to members who had spoken to day

Mr Goodrich adduced several cases of the unjust taxation of the Milwaukee and Mississippi R R, under the former law. One town whose whole tax was $700 had taxed the road $500 for its small strip. He exhibited statistics showing how greatly the road had benefited this State.—He had mortgaged 400 acres to the road, and would mortgage as much more if he had it, in order to help the road through. It must be remembered that, with two extensions to the Mississippi, there was yet two-thirds of the road to be built. He begged that, whatever was done, the Company should not be thrown back to be bled at the will of the town Assessors.

Mr Topliff spoke at some length, disputing the idea of benefit to his county from this road.

The vote was taken, and resulted in the indefinite postponement of the bill as follows

Ayes Allen Barns, Bonnell Blaizer, Boyd, Clark Carey Cole Cross, Dart Dewey Downs, [illegible] Ebbitts, Fahey, Field Goodrich Goodall Gross Hooper Hull, Isham, Juneau, Lewis [illegible] Martin McIndoe, Moseowitz Pratt Ramsey, [illegible] Rood, Rose, Ruan, Schwefel Scrage [illegible] Smith, P H Smith Stevens Thomas Townsend Vliet, Welch Wharry, Shoes (Speaker)—46

Right of Voters to Canvass Opinions of Judicial Candidates on Public or National Questions.

Every sign of the times indicate a clear heavy and intelligent majority of the people of Wisconsin and of every other free State, against the Fugitive Slave Law. Every sign too, indicates that a heavy majority of the people hold the law to be unconstitutional. The present aim is to compel the State Courts to declare the law unconstitutional and adhere to the declaration with bull dog stubbornness

We are a law abiding people and do not wish to close down on this law, which monopolizes kidnapping and outgoing them jury trials in any other manner than in a legal way. The legal way is through our Courts, and to apply the remedy or make it available Judges must be elected, who in conscience and practice, believe the law wrong and unconstitutional. The very idea of a popular election implies a free canvass of the views and opinions of candidates for the bench, in public matters, just as of any other election

People have a right to know the views of candidates upon any question of a public character. It is true this may be terrible doctrine to those who derive all their inspirations from the Federal Courts which teach that, of all the institutions on earth negrocracy are to be sought after and that alone holding in the only interest worth while for the Government to see to protect build up and sanctify! We are now speaking of National matters not private ones. The views of a candidate for Judge, touching any private interest or case between litigants, are never to be enquired into, but his views upon the constitutionality of a law affecting the whole may freely enquired into

The U S Senate once rejected Justice Walworth because he did not hold that the law of Slavery is above all law, human and Divine. There can be no doubt about it, that the Federal powers canvass the views of all who apply for a top seat upon the Federal Bench touching the peculiar institution, and after their appointment, when their judicial decisions with more than doubtless certainty, well do the Judges know the rules of the Federal inquisition which nips the head of all who hold that any human has a right when there is a nigger in the way!

Under such circumstances we hold that the electors of Wisconsin are clothed with the like canvassing power when they come to supply a vacancy in their Judicial Bench. No doctrine [illegible] in our mind—else, why empower the people with the election of their own Judges? Beautiful idea, a right to vote for, but no right to find out the opinions of candidates upon great questions upon which if elected, such officers will be called on to act!

The question before the people at the forthcoming election is shall the decision of Smith and Whiton, regarding the unconstitutionality of the Fugitive Slave Law stand? Crawford who dissented and was is again before the people, has declared that the law is constitutional, Cole his opponent voted against the law while in Congress and is well known to be a bitter opponent of it. This decides the question with us, with Cole we agree and for him we shall vote, by which vote we shall stand by the decision of Smith and Whiton

NEW ROUTE TO LAKE SUPERIOR —We have been permitted to copy the following extract of a letter from John G Parker, Esq, to his father, dated,

Ontanagon, February 5 1855

"A party will start on the 24th, to cut a trail out from Lake Vieu Desert to Shawano, on Wolf River, for a mail route from this county. R. R. Lewiston and Mr Merriwether go through with the compass, and some twenty men will follow with their axes to cut the road out. They will undoubtedly reach Shawano about the middle of March. I think some of going with them." * * * "See what you can do in your county to help cut the road from Shawano. We are all in favor of that route."

Experienced men have always considered the above route the best from this county to Lake Superior, and if ever a Railroad is built it must go that way from Menasha, to Shawano there is a good travelled road and a weekly mail. The distance from Shawano to Lake Superior is only about 160 miles which makes this by far the shortest and best route. The country is also tender [illegible] a road easily made, and we hope the appeal of our Lake Superior friends will be responded to by the people of Northern Wisconsin.—[Menasha Advocate

SUPERB TEAM.—Two of the most splendid horses we have ever seen were driven in front of our office this morning by our friend Milbanks, of the firm of Spring [illegible] & Milbanks, livery men. They belonged to David Leavitt, Esq, of New York, and were purchased in Chicago for $3000 each. They are nearly seventeen hands high, of bright bay color and without exception the most stylish team we have ever seen.—[Albany Evening Transcript, Feb. 15

Last July we gave a history of these horses, which it may not be uninteresting, in connection with the paragraph above, to repeat. Four years ago this spring, they were bought, with a buggy and double harness by Charles G Hayes, of this city, for $175. In the course of the following summer the whole establishment was sold by Mr Hayes to Nathaniel Parker for $245. Mr Parker's son sold the whole to Wm F Tompkins for $300, and Mr Tompkins, after using them for some months sold the horses for $300 to Trask & Howland by whom they were trained and used in a livery stable for about two years.—While in possession of Trask and Howland, they took the first premium in the state and Rock county agricultural fairs as the best matched span on exhibition. Trask & Howland sold them, a year ago to Mr Ehle of Kenosha for $600 who kept them a few months and sold to Mr Garnsey, of Chicago, for $2300. They now have had another transfer and this time $3000 were paid for them.—[Janesville Gazette

THE UNPARALLELED INSULT!—This community will learn with regret that the President with which it has pleased the ACADEMY to afflict the United States has nullified the action of Congress for improving the navigation of the St. Clair Flats. A Bill was passed appropriating $45 000 for that truly national work. On the same day another bill was passed appropriating $160 000 for clearing out the harbor of Savannah—a goose pond, compared with the St. Clair in point of commercial consequence. This Pierce signed. The other, he refused to sign and the appropriation is lost—and our merchants and vessel owners of the Lakes will lose another million on top of their loss of last year.—[Buffalo Democracy.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—As three men were riding in a lumber wagon in the town of Caledonia, on Saturday evening last one of the number named John Kent, a Scotchman, was thrown out by the sudden slipping of the wagon to one side, and so severely injured that he expired the third day after the accident. It is supposed that the spinal column was broken, as the lower part of his body was entirely helpless after the accident.—[Racine Advocate

SAD ACCIDENT.—We learn that a sad and fatal accident occurred in Yorkville in this county on Wednesday afternoon last. About 1 o'clock Mrs Wm Goff left her house to go to a spring about 20 rods distant leaving in the house a little girl five years old, and an infant. Mrs G was absent only a few minutes, but on her return she found her little girl lying upon the floor with every shred of clothing burnt from her body. She lived in great agony about five hours, when death relieved her sufferings.

She said she sat down on the stove hearth while her mother was absent, and it is probable her clothes caught fire while in that position.—[Racine Advocate

"Brother, I've got to Die!"

Three men, Schwister, Engles, and Nettcoven, enter the bar-room of a country tavern, or grocery, call for liquor, and the three drink from one tumbler filled with whiskey—apparently in friendship among themselves and with the landlord. One of the men suggest a game at dice for a quart of beer—the dice are being thrown—the landlord comes with the beer and waits pay for it in advance. A remark is made by one of the men, that they mean to pay for it and he asks the landlord if "he thinks they are going to do as he had done, drink at a tavern and leave without paying for it?" This appears to have been the cause of changing the feeling of the party. The landlord goes to his bed room, and appears again in the bar-room with a bottle in his hand, in a threatening manner. One of the party takes up a flat iron from the stove and tells the landlord "if that's what you want, come on, or I'm here." A woman now appears in the scene as pacificator, on the floor, so soon to be stained with human blood—the life-blood of a fellow-creature. By persuasion, she succeeds in getting the flat iron from Engles and her husband, Fassbinder, goes back to his bed room, the difficulty appears to be ended. The strangers sit down to the table to throw dice—the landlord comes back into the bar-room and takes down his rifle, from nearly over their heads—he retreats to his bed-room, draws the ramrod and apparently rams down the charge—in a moment the weapon is pressed against the door jamb—Engles observes it, and jumps from the rest of the party. Schwister, whose time is come, sees the rang of the deadly bullet, and shouts "thunder and lightning, he's going to shoot." The trigger drawn—the gun discharged—the breast of Schwister is pierced by the ball—the wound is fatal. By instinct the stricken man forthwith—with his hand clutches the spot, and sinking to the floor, utters the words, "Brother, I've got to die." Soon afterwards the landlord is arrested, and while the body of his victim lies on the floor of his bar-room, passes it and looking at Schwister, not yet dead, in bitter malice yet unappeased, hisses out the words, "lay there and rot;" and, that "although he should have to go to jail, it would be only for a little while," and again, that he would serve some others the same way when he got out. So the murderer, in the presence, in view of the bleeding body of the man he had just slain asserts that he shall have to go to jail "but only for a little while," and threatens what he will do when he comes out.

Fassbinder is taken to jail, an inquest is held upon the body of Schwister, the jury find a verdict that he came to his death by a gun-shot wound, from a rifle held in the hands of Fassbinder, he is indicted, a trial is had, he is prosecuted fairly, and defended by counsel who exhausts his argument, pleads earnestly and eloquently to obtain his acquittal, the judge charges fairly and fully as to the law, leaving the jury free to determine the facts, the jury leave their box—it would seem more in apprehension than ought else—they return into court and say, that Edward Fassbinder in the killing of Martin is Schwister is guilty of murder in the first degree. The prisoner is again brought into Court and sentenced to hard labor in the State Prison for the term of his natural life, and but for a change in the law of recent date he too might have to exclaim, "Brother, I've got to die!"

The jury composed of men of several nations, seem to have entered the jury-box determined to do their sworn duty, they have done it doubtless with much sorrow, but still it is done, and they must have left their seats and returned to their homes with consciences free from accusation or reproach. If all juries had done their duties as this one did, would this unfortunate man have been impressed with the idea, that for shooting down a fellow creature in cold blood, he would "have to go to jail but only for a little while"? Or had the failure of previous juries to do their duties warranted Fassbinder in the belief—and perhaps many others, as time shall bring them upon the stage to act their parts in future bloody dramas—that for killing a fellow man without provocation and not in self-defence, the only punishment would be imprisonment in jail "but only for a little while." The public must answer these questions as best they may—their lives are at stake, and those lives will be the more or the less secure as juries shall, acting up to their sworn duties as jurors, fulfil those duties.

What a contrast does the above recited case present to one nearly two years past! One simple, and perhaps unimportant contrast between the two cases is, that words memorable words, were uttered in the one just before the report, in the other just after the report, in both cases of a deadly weapon, and yet the truth of both sentences or expressions has been realized. The former case is yet fresh in the minds of the public—stripped of the halo or "sacred circle" that encased it at the time, it was this. A man in the vigor of life stands, among several other exposed to public gaze in one of the most public thoroughfares of the city, looking into the window of a book-store, at some caricatures of presidential candidates, and in reply to a remark of some one who stood near him, said—"It's all a d—d humbug." A shot was fired—the bullet entered the base of the skull—severed the spinal marrow,—death was instantaneous. Lace fell dead—"his soul passed in an instant before its Maker, with the words 'it's all a humbug,' upon his lips." The report was heard by a Deputy Sheriff, standing a short distance off, as well as by those who stood near Lace, and strange to say, although the weapon of the murderess was held within a few inches of the head of the assassinated man, no one saw—no one knew—until she had confessed—who had fired the fatal shot, although the act was committed at 20 minutes before 11 in the forenoon. The officer remarked that the man had accidentally shot himself, but the murderess, who stood near the curb-stone, with the pistol still in her hand, only one barrel of which had been discharged, coolly looking on at the stream of life blood as it ebbed from the murdered man, and listening with fiendish delight to the gurgling sound of his dying breath, replied—"No, Sir! I did it and am willing to suffer for it!" The officer arrests her, on the way to the jail they meet the Sheriff, and in reply to a remark of his as to how she could kill the poor fellow, she says, as if to show the preparation, determination, and hardihood of the consequences—"I did it and I'm proud of it and I'm willing to hang for it on a gibbet forty cubits higher than Haman's." Being searched, and a knife with a dirk blade found on her, she remarked—"I meant to make sure work of it," and again regretted that "Lace didn't live long enough to know who shot him."

In this case, as in the other, an inquest is held upon the body, and a verdict is rendered similar as in the other case—that the deceased came to his death, by a ball fired from a pistol, held in the hands &c. A trial, too follows, the killing is admitted, insanity interposed as a plea, the first jury fail to agree, another is empanelled and after being out for some time return into court with a verdict of "not guilty by reason of insanity," but whether the insanity upon which the verdict of not guilty was found, existed with the defendant, or the jury who returned it, has never yet transpired, to enlighten an anxious public. Were not the words of Lace, the last he uttered upon earth realized if applied to the trial which followed? For where is the candid man that looks back upon the result of that trial, but what must exclaim—"it was all a humbug." Schwister, shot with barely a moment's warning, sinks to the floor, exclaiming "Brother, I've got to die!" he dies—his words are realized, his murderer is convicted and doomed to incarceration in a felon's cell the remainder of his life. If in the former case, the prisoner was entitled to a discharge as discharged she was, why was not Fassbinder entitled to a discharge also? because, it may be answered, no plea of insanity was interposed. In the one case the prisoner was an American by birth, in the other a German. In the one case the prisoner acknowledges the effect of the deed and is willing to hang for it," in the other the prisoner is impressed with the idea that the punishment for murder, is imprisonment "for a little while," and in both instances the prisoners are disappointed as to results, their statements are not realized, while the statements of the murdered men are fully realized.

When Fauntleroy was on trial at the Old Bailey for forgery—and he was the last man ever hanged for that crime—his counsel for the crown in summing up, urged upon the jury, that if Fauntleroy was found not guilty, Smith and Jones, who had been tried, convicted and hung a short time before for forging a five pound check, had been both legally murdered.

If the acquittal of the murderess of Lace, was just and legal, how can the imprisonment of Fassbinder for life, be anything but unjust and illegal. And, reviewing former murder trials, the acquittals of numerous murderers after slight imprisonments before mock trials, may not the unfortunate man Fassbinder, as well as numerous others not yet before the courts have been somewhat justified in the belief, that, for murder, the punishment was imprisonment "but only for a little while," although the victim of the murder sinking to the floor never to rise again may exclaim—"Brother I've got to die."

CITY MATTERS.

Police Court—March 17.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, ESQ., POLICE JUSTICE

No criminal business was transacted during the day worthy of note

In the afternoon a young woman with a child about ten months old in her arms, came in soliciting alms, having a paper without date recommending her to the charitable. On questioning her, she stated that she came from Chicago on the day previous, and had resided there for three or four months, and was out of employment the recipient of charity and that she was recommended to come to Milwaukee. On pressing the questions, we came to the conclusion that the passage money was supplied to her to get her from Chicago to Milwaukee. If such is the case and if the poor of other cities are to be sent here for support, some action of our authorities should be had to prevent it. That it has been done previously we have no doubt, as people themselves have admitted it

CIRCUIT COURT.—The circuit court was adjourned sine die on Saturday afternoon, the March Term being ended. Judge Hubbell leaves this morning to hold the March Term of the Circuit Court at Waukesha.

Hibernian Benevolent Society.

The Hibernian Benevolent Society of this city celebrated St Patrick's Day by a festive entertainment at Young's Hall on Saturday evening. The sons and daughters of Erin with a large number of invited guests and of their fellow-citizens of American and German birth, sat down about half past 8 o'clock to a handsome repast provided by MR STAFFORD. Three tables, set lengthwise of the large Hall, and a fourth, running across, at which the officers of the Society and their guests were placed, barely accommodated the large number present. The American flag waved from the gallery, and the Society's Banner was displayed upon the stage. A band of music lent its attractions to the festival. DR. JAMES JOHNSON presided with his accustomed tact and courtesy. The regular toasts, which abounded in sentiment appropriate to the occasion, were responded to, upon the call of the President, by Messrs JOHN WHITE, DANIEL SHAW, REV MR DONAHUE, SMITH McGARRY, JOHN W BROWN, Esq, MR CLASON, of the News MR S M BOOTH, of the Free Democrat and other gentlemen. A number of volunteer sentiments were offered and several songs given, with taste and feeling by Messrs HICKEY, LYNCH, COSTIGAN and others. The Festival was conducted on strict Temperance principles, and was marked by the most gratifying decorum and good order. The company separated about midnight highly delighted with the evening's entertainment

CLEMENT'S U S MAIL LINE.—From and after to day the steamers Traveller Capt JONES, and Pacific Capt CLARK, will form a daily line between Chicago Milwaukee Sheboygan and intermediate ports. The New Capt NICHOLAS and Cleveland, Capt GREEN, will soon be added to the line. Mr. George C. Drew, an entirely competent and trustworthy man, is the Chicago Agent. The Eastern mail will henceforth be carried by these steamers, which will leave every morning at 8 o'clock and arrive from Chicago every afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock. The boats are in good order well officered and entitled to public patronage

FIRE DEPARTMENT—ANNUAL ELECTION.—The annual election for Chief Engineer Assistants and Fire Wardens, of the Milwaukee Fire Department, comes off at Young's Lower Hall this evening. A spirited contest is anticipated there being several candidates in the field

INSURANCE AGENCY.—Mr BOISE advertises in our columns a new and strong Insurance Company for which he is agent. Mr Boise has been for some time in the Insurance business, and has paid up promptly the losses sustained by the Companies for which he has taken risks. See his card

☞ We invite attention to the card of Messrs JAMES A PIRIE & Co, in our advertising columns, gentlemen so well and favorably known in our city and with such excellent endorsers, that any commendatory remarks on our part would be quite superfluous. They hold forth at the Blue Warehouse, as Storage, Forwarding and Commission Merchants

WINTER LINGERING.—We had another furious snow-storm, quite worthy of mid winter on Saturday morning. The snow fell to the depth of four, or five inches, making good sleighing again. The Farmers must rejoice to the warm, yet moist covering which the snow furnishes to the Winter grain

SHOT THROUGH.—Some person shot through, the glass of the Light House, at the mouth of the harbor on Saturday, breaking five panes of glass and doing other damage

NORTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The sale of slips in this new Church commences at 10 o'clock this (Monday) morning

RAILWAYS.—The Louisville Journal contains a condensed statement (taken from an article in Hunt's Magazine) relative to the number of miles of railway now in operation upon the surface of the globe. The total is estimated at 40 344—of which 17 020 are in the Eastern and 23 324 in the Western Hemisphere, and which are distributed as follows. In Great Britain 7 771 miles—in Germany 5 340 miles—in France 2 480 miles;—in Belgium 532 miles—in Russia 422 miles—in Italy 170 miles—in Sweden 75 miles—in Norway 42 miles—in Spain 60 miles—in Africa 25 miles—in India 100 miles—in the United States 21 528 miles—in the British Provinces 1 327 miles—in the Island of Cuba, 319 miles—in Panama 50 miles—in South America 60 miles

The longest Railway in the world is the Illinois Central, which, with its branches, is 731 miles in length, at a cost of fifteen millions of dollars. The number of miles of railway in the United States exceed the rest of the world by the amount of 2,712.

The total number of railways completed in the United States is 271, the number in the course of construction is 171, the number of miles in operation, 21,528, have been constructed at a cost of $616 760 333. The number of miles in the course of construction is 16 738

The State of Massachusetts has one mile of railway to each seven square miles of geographical surface. Essex county in that State has one mile of railway to each three square miles of surface

NO LICENSE IN JANESVILLE.—The Janesville Common Council, by a vote of 9 to 1, have resolved to grant no licenses for the sale of Spirituous liquors during the present year. This resolution was based upon a petition signed by 500 citizens and presented to the Council.

FIRST TRIP OF THE SEASON.—The steamer Pacific Capt Clark returned from her last trip down the lake just as [illegible] and [illegible] the second at 8 o'clock this morning, and will probably continue on to Sheboygan. The Pacific will call landings at Waukegan and Kenosha. At Racine the bridge piers are broken up, but will be repaired as speedily as possible. When the boat arrived at Milwaukee three thousand people were collected upon and near the pier, and hailed her approach with a round of cheers. The boat (probably) trembled with joy through all her timbers, and ran her nose in among the crowd like a favorite animal willing to be petted, the bell began to ring merrily of its own accord, and FILLMORE of the Sentinel, was the first man to jump ashore and anxiously inquire, "Well Captain, what's the news?"—[Chicago Dem Press Saturday.

Temperance Bill Passed the Senate!

MADISON, March 16, 1855

IN SENATE

Petitions

By Mr Gibson, for a ferry on Red Cedar river

Bills

By Mr Gibson charter of Stillwater Ferry Co
" Sutherland, amending an act concerning [illegible] on Rock river

The list of bills passed [illegible] included the bill for the purchase of a copy of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary for each school district in the state for which is to be paid in two years out of the library money. Some unimportant [illegible] were ordered, which brings it back to the Assembly for concurrence.

The Liquor bill was reported back from the Special Committee with a substitute, from the Assembly bill in effect but arranged and shaped more smoothly and except [illegible] to be purchased in limited quantities for use at home. No action was taken in the morning but the whole afternoon was spent upon the subject.

Several of the Senators who oppose the [illegible] were very severe in censure of the motives of the members who advocated the amendment—insisting that it was done for the purpose of obtaining votes. Messrs Wakely and Harvey answered with ability denying the motives and insisting that as temperance men they were bound to [illegible] and their districts and to the whole State, and to enact a law which, while efficient, should be as correct as possible. — A substitute by Mr Eldredge was rejected.

The substitute was adopted 13 to 7 and the bill ordered to a third reading 11 to 6. Mr [illegible] moved to suspend the rules and take the [illegible] vote. Mr Harvey said that Mr [illegible], who was necessarily absent, had desired to have the [illegible] delayed that he would record his vote against the bill. He (Mr H) thought the courtesy ought to be extended to him. Mr [illegible] and Mr Sinclair both said that they had remained here all the week so as to be present on the final vote, and now desired that it should be taken. The vote on the passage was taken, and resulted as follows

AYES—Messrs Bashford, Clement, Dewey, [illegible] Harvey, Hoy, Ladd, Reymert, Sutherland, Wakely, W[illegible], Worthington—13.

NOES—Messrs Bovee, Dunn, Eldredge, Gill, Holley, Kelsey—7.

By Mr A. Taylor to repeal the Constitution and all laws enacted under it (This bill was [illegible])

By Mr Cary authorizing a [illegible] at [illegible]

By Mr Stevens to locate [illegible] in Clark county

Among the Reports, Mr Purnell from the [illegible] Committee on Claims, reported favorably a bill for protection of rights of Married Women [illegible] to committee of the whole.

Mr Davis, from Committee on Corporations, reported back an [illegible] bill without recommendation, the committee being unable to agree upon it.

Mr Vliet from select committee, reported favorably on 2d Ward tax bills

All the bills on 3d reading but two were passed. One of the [illegible] was a bill to [illegible] from the record in the Register's office Milwaukee [illegible] swamp and [illegible] lands, at which [illegible] 1220 in [illegible] district

On motion of Mr H[illegible], the bill to repeal the act of last winter providing for taxing railroads which was the special order for yesterday had been passed over, was taken up and, in order to bring a question before the Assembly, Mr Hull moved the indefinite postponement of the bill.— On this motion an interesting debate occupied the rest of the morning.

Mr Goss first spoke briefly against the proposition.

Mr Earnest followed in favor. He said that while he did not grant that the present law was unconstitutional—he thought it was, and thrown [illegible] with the law which prevented the [illegible] of the former unjust taxes upon our railroads would exercise an influence to drive out the foreign capital which we so much needed to build them. Waukesha county, a county had [illegible], and it was unjust that county should prevent others from obtaining the same advantage by crippling the roads to put all on a good position therefore.

Mr Martin took a different view of the subject from some others. He believed that the lands taken for railroad purposes under charters [illegible] were merged in the franchise, and could only be taxed as personal property—stated the history of the power. He sustained this view by citing several judicial decisions. He had been in favor of repealing the present law because the [illegible] ought to exempt the [illegible] but if they were willing to pay this bonus to the state [illegible]

Mr Wakely said that [illegible] he was the first one [illegible] to be held out to the people by the [illegible] and he thought [illegible] would have been [illegible] roads [illegible]

Mr Tury did not believe in the doctrine. If carried out it would include mill dam property and all other franchises of the kind. These roads have power to take and hold an unlimited quantity of land, and it was understood that one company in the State had already possession of some 40,000 acres. Would this be exempt from the county [illegible]

Mr Goss said that he thought that members were [illegible] which they proposed to place in the way of building railroads in this state when they tried to repeal this law, and they would have reason to regret that they had [illegible] the roads to the strife and prejudice of town assessors, for a temporary local benefit. He dwelt at some length upon the benefit which one company, the Mil & Miss, had been to the State, asserting that according to an estimate made by Mr Vliet, its road had enhanced the value of the lands lying within 10 miles of its line to an amount three times the cost of the road. The own county and Columbia county had been vastly enhanced in the value of their lands by only the location of roads in them, the roads being in course of construction. The towns along the line of the proposed roads have no right to ask that their road [illegible] shall be permitted to absorb the revenues of the roads. The farmers who had mortgaged their farms to aid the Mil & Miss R R did not do so solely to make money, but from a patriotic desire to benefit the country. The Constitution expressly gave power to the Legislature to say what property should be taxed. As to the rumor that a company had acquired a large quantity of land he knew of no such thing. The La Crosse Co had had a quasi title to about 40,000 acres of its lands only while being assigned and had disposed of it for a consideration. Nothing had been gained or lost. The company would never have had anything to do with them with his consent.

Mr Tury after some further remarks, moved to refer the bill to a special committee. Lost.

Mr Stevens said that he should go for the indefinite postponement because it was impossible to get uniform taxation in the different towns of the state.

Mr A. Taylor favored the motion.

Mr Randall spoke against, re-iterating the arguments advanced the other day, and advancing others in answer to members who had spoken to day.

Mr Goodrich adduced several cases of the unjust taxation of the Milwaukee and Mississippi R R, under the former law. One town whose whole tax was $700 had taxed the road $500 for its small strip. He exhibited statistics showing how greatly the road had benefited this State.— He had mortgaged 400 acres to the road, and would mortgage as much more if he had it, in order to help the road through. It must be recollected that, with two extensions to the Mississippi, there was yet two-thirds of the road to be built. He begged that, whatever was done, the Company should not be thrown back to be bled at the will of the town Assessors.

Mr Pophlt spoke at some length, disputing the idea of benefit to his county from this road.

The vote was taken, and resulted in the indefinite postponement of the bill as follows

Ayes, Allen Barns, Bennett Blaizer, Boyd, Clark Carey Cole Cross, Davis Dewers Downs, Earnest Ebbitts, Fahey, Field Goodrich Goodall Gunn Hooper Hull, Ilsom, Juneau, Lewis [illegible] Martin McIndo, Moscowitz Pratt Ramsey, Robb Rogers Rood, Rose, Ruan, Schwefel Schrage [illegible] Smith, P H Smith Stevens Thomas Townsend Vliet, Welch Whirry, Shoals (Speaker)—46

Right of Voters to Canvass Opinions of Judicial Candidates on Public or National Questions.

Every sign of the times indicate a clear heavy and intelligent majority of the people of Wisconsin and of every other free State, against the Fugitive Slave Law. Every sign too, indicates that a heavy majority of the people hold the law to be unconstitutional. The present aim is to compel the State Courts to declare the law unconstitutional and adhere to the declaration with bull dog stubbornness.

We are a law abiding people and do not wish to close down on this law, which monopolizes kidnapping; or to avoid outgoing the jury trials in any other manner than in a legal way. The legal way is through our Courts, and to apply the remedy or make it available Judges must be elected, who in conscience and practice, believe the law wrong and unconstitutional. The very idea of a popular election implies a free canvass of the views and opinions of candidates for the bench, in public matters, just as in any other election.

People have a right to know the views of candidates upon any question of a public character. It is true this may be terrible doctrine to those who derive all their inspirations from the Federal Courts which teach that, of all the institutions on earth negroes only are to be sought after and that slave-holding is the only interest worth while for the Government to seek to protect, build up and sanctify! We are now speaking of National questions, not private ones. The views of a candidate for Judge, touching any private interest or case between litigants, are never to be enquired whether, his views on the constitutionality of a law affecting the whole may freely inquired into.

The U S Senate once rejected Justice Walworth because he did not hold that the law of Slavery is above all law, human and Divine. There can be no doubt about it, that the Federal powers canvass the views of all who apply for a [illegible] to the Federal Bench touching the peculiar institution, and after their appointment, write their judicial decisions with more than [illegible] scrutiny, well do the Judges know the rules of the Federal inquisition which maps the land of all who hold that any human has a right when there is a nigger in the way!

Under such circumstances we hold that the electors of Wisconsin are clothed with the like canvassing power when they come to supply a vacancy in their Judicial Bench. No doctrine [illegible] in our mind—else, why empower the people with the election of their own Judges? Beautiful idea, a right to vote for, but no right to find out the opinions of candidates upon great questions upon which if elected, such officers, will be called on to act!

The question before the people at the forth coming election is shall the decision of Smith and Whiton, regarding the unconstitutionality of the Fugitive Slave Law stand? Crawford who dissented and was [illegible] again before the people, has decreed that the law [is] constitutional, Cole his opponent voted against the law while in Congress and is known to be a bitter opponent [of it]. This decides the question with us, with Cole we agree and for him we shall vote, by which vote we shall stand by the decision of Smith and Whiton

NEW ROUTE TO LAKE SUPERIOR —We have been permitted to copy the following extract of a letter from John G Parker, Esq, to his father, dated,

Ontanagon, February 5 1855

"A party will start on the 24th, to cut a trail out from Lake View Desert to Shawano, on Wolf River, for a mail route from this country. R H Lewiston and Mr Meriwether go through with the compass, and some twenty men will follow with their axes to cut the road out. They will and probably reach Shawano about the middle of March. I think some of going with them * * * * See what you can do in your county to help cut the road from Shawano. We are all in favor of that route"

Experienced men have always considered the above route the best from this county to Lake Superior, and if ever a Railroad is built it must go that way from Kenosha, to Shawano there is now a travel road and a weekly mail. The distance from Shawano to Lake Superior is only about 160 miles which makes this by far the shortest and best route. The country also renders a road easily made, and we hope the appeal of our Lake Superior friends will be responded to by the people of Northern Wisconsin —[Menasha Advocate

SUPERB TEAM—Two of the most splendid horses we have ever seen were driven in front of our office this morning by our friend Milbanks, of the firm of Spring[illegible] & Milbanks, livery [illegible]. They belonged to David Leavitt, Esq, of New York and were purchased in Chicago for $3000 cash. They are nearly seventeen hands high, of bright bay color and without exception the most stylish team we have ever seen. —[Albany Evening Transcript, Feb. 15

Last July we gave a history of these horses, which it may not be uninteresting, in connection with the paragraph above, to repeat. Four years ago this spring, they were bought, with a buggy and double harness by Charles G Hayes, of this city for $175. In the course of the following summer the whole establishment was sold by Mr Hayes to Nathaniel Parker for $215. Mr Parker soon sold the whole to Wm F Tompkins for $300, and Mr Tompkins, after using them for some months sold the horses for $300 to Trask & Howland, by whom they were trained and used in a livery stable for about two years.— While in possession of Trask and Howland, they took the first premium in the state and Rock county agricultural fairs as the best matched span on exhibition. Trask & Howland sold them, a year ago to Mr Ehle of Kenosha for $600 who kept them a few months and sold to Mr Gurnee, of Chicago, for $2300. They now have had another transfer and this time $3000 were paid for them —[Janesville Gazette

THE HARBOR [illegible] —This community will be sad [illegible] to learn that the President with which it has pleased the Almighty to afflict the United States has nullified the action of Congress for improving the navigation of the St. Clair Flats. A Bill was passed appropriating $45 000 for that truly national work. On the same day another bill was passed appropriating $160 000 for clearing out the harbor of Savannah—a goose pond, compared with the St. Clair in point of commercial consequence. This Pierce signed. The other, he refused to sign and the appropriation is lost—and our merchants and vessel owners of the Lakes will lose another million on top of their loss of last year —[Buffalo Democracy.

FATAL ACCIDENT —As three men were riding in a lumber wagon in the town of Caledonia, on Saturday evening last one of the number named John Kent, a Scotchman, was thrown out by the sudden slipping of the wagon to one side, and so severely injured that he expired the third day after the accident. It is supposed that the spinal column was broken, as the lower part of his body was entirely helpless after the accident —[Racine Advocate

SAD ACCIDENT —We learn that a sad and fatal accident occurred in Yorkville in this county on Wednesday afternoon last. About 1 o'clock Mrs Wm Goff left her house to go to a spring about 20 rods distant leaving in the house a little girl two years old, and an infant. Mrs G was absent only a few minutes, but on her return she found her little girl lying upon the floor with every shred of clothing burnt from her body. She lived in great agony about two hours, when death relieved her sufferings.

She said she sat down on the stove hearth while her mother was absent, and it is probable her clothes caught fire while in that position.—[Racine Advocate

"Brother, I've got to Die!"

Three men, Schwister, Engles, and Nett coven, enter the bar-room of a country tavern, or grocery, call for liquor, and the three drink from one tumbler filled with whiskey—apparently in friendship among themselves and with the landlord. One of the men suggest a game at dice for a quart of beer—the dice are being thrown—the landlord comes with the beer and wants pay for it in advance. A remark is made by one of the men, that they mean to pay for it and he asks the landlord if he thinks they are going to do as he had done, drink at a tavern and leave without paying for it? This appears to have been the cause of changing the feeling of the party. The landlord goes to his bed room, and appears again in the bar-room with a bottle in his hand, in a threatening manner. One of the party takes up a flat iron from the stove and tells the landlord "if that's what you want, come on, or I'm here." A woman now appears in the scene as pacificator, on the floor, so soon to be stained with human blood—the life-blood of a fellow-creature. By persuasion, she succeeds in getting the flat iron from Engles and her husband, Fassbinder, goes back to his bed room, the difficulty appears to be ended. The strangers sit down to the table to throw dice—the landlord comes back into the bar-room and takes down his rifle, from nearly over their heads—retreats to his bed-room, draws the ramrod and apparently rams down the charge—in a moment the weapon is pressed against the door jam—Engles observes it, and jumps from the rest of the party. Schwister, whose time is come, sees the rising of the deadly bullet, and shouts "thunder and lightning, he's going to shoot." The trigger drawn—the gun discharged—the breast of Schwister is pierced by the ball—the wound is fatal by instinct the stricken man foretells it—with his hand clutches the spot, and sinking to the floor, utters the words, "Brother, I've got to die." Soon afterwards the landlord is arrested, and while the body of his victim lies on the floor of his bar-room, passes it and looking at Schwister, not yet dead, in bitter malice yet unappeased, he cries out the words, "lay there and rot;" and, that "although he should have to go to jail, it would be only for a little while," and again, that he would serve some others the same way when he got out. So the murderer, in the presence, in view of the bleeding body of the man he had just slain asserts that he shall have to go to jail "but only for a little while," and threatens what he will do when he comes out.

Fassbinder is taken to jail, an inquest is held upon the body of Schwister, the jury find a verdict that he came to his death by a gun-shot wound, from a rifle held in the hands of Fassbinder, he is indicted, a trial is had, he is prosecuted fairly, and defended by counsel who exhausts his argument, pleads earnestly and eloquently to obtain his acquittal, the judge charges fairly and fully as to the law, leaving the jury free to determine the facts, the jury leave their box—it would seem more for appearance sake than ought else—they return into court and say, that Edward Fassbinder in the killing of Martenis Schwister is guilty of murder in the first degree. The prisoner is again brought into Court and sentenced to hard labor in the State Prison for the term of his natural life, and but for a change in the law of recent date he too might have to exclaim, "Brother, I've got to die!"

The jury composed of men of several nations, seem to have entered the jury-box determined to do their sworn duty, they have done it doubtless with much sorrow, but still it is done, and they must have left their seats and returned to their homes with conscience free from accusation or reproach. If all juries had done their duties as this one did, would this unfortunate man have been impressed with the idea, that for shooting down a fellow creature in cold blood, he would "have to go to jail but only for a little while"? Or had the failure of previous juries to do their duties warranted Fassbinder in the belief—and perhaps many others, as time shall bring them upon the stage to act their parts in future bloody dramas—that for killing a fellow man without provocation and not in self-defence, the only punishment would be imprisonment in jail "but only for a little while." The public must answer these questions as best they may—their lives are at stake, and those lives will be the more or the less secure as juries shall, acting up to their sworn duties as jurors, fulfil those duties.

What a contrast does the above record case present to one nearly two years past! One simple, and perhaps unimportant contrast between the two cases is, that words memorable words, were uttered in the one just before the report, in the other just after the report, in both cases of a deadly weapon, and yet the truth of both sentences or expressions has been realized. The former case is yet fresh in the minds of the public—stripped of the halo or "sacred circle" that encased it at the time, it was this. A man in the vigor of life stands, among several others exposed to public gaze in one of the most public thoroughfares of the city, looking into the window of a book-store, at some caricatures of presidential candidates, and in reply to a remark of some one who stood near him, said—"It's all a d—d humbug." A shot was fired—the bullet entered the base of the skull—severed the spinal marrow,—death was instantaneous. Lace fell dead—"his soul passed in an instant be ore its Maker, with the words 'it's all a humbug,' upon his lips." The report was heard by a Deputy Sheriff, standing a short distance off, as well as by those who stood near Lace, and strange to say, although the weapon of the murderess was held within a few inches of the head of the assassinated man, no one saw—no one knew—until she had confessed—who had fired the fatal shot, although the act was committed at 20 minutes before 11 in the forenoon. The officer remarked that the man had accidentally shot himself, but the murderess, who stood near the curb-stone, with the pistol still in her hand, only one barrel of which had been discharged, coolly looking on at the stream of life blood as it ebbed from the murdered man, and listening with fiendish delight to the gurgling sound of his dying breath, replied—"No, Sir! I did it and am willing to suffer for it!" The officer arrests her, on the way to the jail they meet the Sheriff, and in reply to a remark of his as to how she could kill the poor fellow, she says, as if to show the preparation, determination, and knowledge of the consequences—"I did it and I'm proud of it and I'm willing to hang for it on a gibbet forty cubits higher than Haman's." Being searched, and a knife with a dirk blade found on her, she remarked—"I meant to make sure work of it," and again regretted that "Lace didn't live long enough to know who shot him."

In this case, as in the other, an inquest is held upon the body, and a verdict is rendered similar as in the other case—that the deceased came to his death, by a ball fired from a pistol, held in the hands &c. A trial, too follows, the killing is admitted, insanity interposed as a plea, the first jury fail to agree, another is empanelled and after being out for some time return in a court with a verdict of "not guilty by reason of insanity," but whether the insanity upon which the verdict of not guilty was found, existed with the defendant, or the jury who returned it, has never yet transpired, to enlighten an anxious public. Were not the words of Lace, the last he uttered upon earth realised if applied to the trial which followed? For where is the candid man that looks back upon the result of that trial, but what must exclaim—"it was all a humbug." Schwister, shot with barely a moment's warning, sinks to the floor, exclaiming "Brother, I've got to die!" he dies, his words are realized, his murderer is convicted and doomed to incarceration in a felon's cell the remainder of his life. If in the former case, the prisoner was entitled to a discharge as discharged she was, why was not Fassbinder entitled to a discharge also? because, it may be answered, no plea of insanity was interposed. In the one case the prisoner was an American by birth in the other a German. In the one case the prisoner acknowledges the effect of the deed and is "willing to hang for it," in the other the prisoner is impressed with the idea that the punishment for murder, is imprisonment "for a little while," and in both instances the prisoners were disappointed as to results, their statements are not realized, while the statements of the murdered men are fully realized.

When Fauntleroy was on trial at the Old Bailey for forgery—and he was the last man ever hanged for that crime—the counsel for the crown in summing up, urged upon the jury, that if Fauntleroy was found not guilty, Smith and Jones, who had been tried, convicted and hung a short time before for forging a five pound check, had been both legally murdered.

If the acquittal of the murderess of Lace, was just and legal, how can the imprisonment of Fassbinder for life, be anything but unjust and illegal. And, reviewing former murder trials, the acquittals of numerous murderers after slight imprisonments before mock trials, may not this unfortunate man Fassbinder, as well as numerous others not yet before the courts have been somewhat justified in the belief, that, for murder, the punishment was imprisonment "but only for a little while," although the victim of the murder sinking to the floor never to rise again may exclaim—"Brother I've got to die."

CITY MATTERS.

Police Court—March 17.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, ESQ., POLICE JUSTICE

No criminal business was transacted during the day worthy of note.

In the afternoon a young woman with a child about ten months old in her arms, came in soliciting alms, having a paper without date recommending her to the charitable. On questioning her, she stated that she came from Chicago on the day previous, and had resided there for three or four months and was out of employment the recipient of charity and that she was recommended to come to Milwaukee. On pressing the questions, we came to the conclusion that the passage money was supplied to her to get her from Chicago to Milwaukee. If such is the case and if the poor of other cities are to be sent here for support, some action of our authorities should be had to prevent it. That it has been done previously we have no doubt, as people themselves have admitted it.

CIRCUIT COURT —The circuit court was adjourned sine die on Saturday afternoon, the March Term being ended. Judge Hubbell leaves this morning to hold the March Term of the Circuit Court at Waukesha.

Hibernian Benevolent Society.

The Hibernian Benevolent Society of this city celebrated St Patrick's Day by a festive entertainment at Young's Hall on Saturday evening. The sons and daughters of Erin with a large number of invited guests and of their fellow-citizens of American and German birth, sat down about half past 8 o'clock to a handsome repast provided by Mr STAFFORD. Three tables, set lengthwise of the large Hall, and a fourth, running across, at which the officers of the Society and their guests were placed, barely accommodated the large number present. The American flag waved from the gallery, and the Society's Banner was displayed upon the stage. A band of music lent its attractions to the festival. Dr. JAMES JOHNSON presided with his accustomed tact and courtesy. The regular toasts, which abounded in sentiments appropriate to the occasion, were responded to, upon the call of the President, by Messrs JOHN WHITE, DANIEL SHAW Rev Mr DONAHUE, Senator MCGARRY, JOHN W BROWN Esq, Mr CLASON, of the News Mr S M BOOTH, of the Free Democrat and other gentlemen. A number of volunteer sentiments were offered and several songs given, with taste and feeling by Messrs HICKEY, LYNCH, COSTIGAN and others. The Festival was conducted on strict Temperance principles, and was marked by the most gratifying decorum and good order. The company separated about midnight highly delighted with the evening's entertainment.

CLEMENT'S U S MAIL LINE —From and after to day the steamers Traveller Capt JONES, and Pacific Capt CLARK, will form a daily line between Chicago Milwaukee Sheboygan and intermediate ports. The Ileto Capt NICHOLAS and Cleveland, Capt GAVEY, will soon be added to the line. Mr George C. DREW, an entirely competent and trustworthy man, is the Chicago Agent. The Eastern mail will henceforth be carried by these steamers, which will leave every morning at 8 o'clock and arrive from Chicago every afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock. The boats are in good order well officered and entitled to public patronage.

FIRE DEPARTMENT—ANNUAL ELECTION —The annual election for Chief Engineer Assistants and Fire Wardens, of the Milwaukee Fire Department, comes off at Young's Lower Hall this evening. A spirited contest is anticipated there being several candidates in the field.

INSURANCE AGENCY —Mr BOISE advertises in our columns a new and strong Insurance Company for which he is agent. Mr Boise has been for some time in the Insurance business, and has paid up promptly the losses sustained by the Companies for which he has taken risks. See his card.

☞ We invite attention to the card of Messrs JAMES A. PIRIE & Co, in our advertising columns, gentlemen so well and favorably known in our city and with such excellent endorsers, that any commendatory remarks on our part would be quite superfluous. They hold forth at the Blue Warehouse, as Storage, Forwarding and Commission Merchants.

WINTER LINGERING —We had another furious snow-storm, quite worthy of mid winter on Saturday morning. The snow fell to the depth of four, or five inches, making good sleighing again. The Farmers must rejoice in the warm, yet moist covering which the snow furnishes to the Winter grain.

SHOT THROUGH —Some person shot through the glass of the Light House, at the mouth of the harbor on Saturday, breaking five panes of glass and doing other damage.

NORTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH —The sale of slips in this new Church commences at 10 o'clock this (Monday) morning.

RAILWAYS.—The Louisville Journal contains a condensed statement (taken from an article in Hunt's Magazine) relative to the number of miles of railway now in operation upon the surface of the globe. The total is estimated at 40 344—of which 17 020 are in the Eastern and 23 324 in the Western Hemisphere, and which are distributed as follows. In Great Britain 7 771 miles—in Germany 5 340 miles—in France 2 480 miles; in Belgium 532 miles—in Russia 422 miles—in Italy 170 miles—in Sweden 75 miles—in Norway 42 miles—in Spain 60 miles—in Africa 25 miles—in India 100 miles—in the United States 21 528 miles—in the British Provinces 1 327 miles—in the Island of Cuba, 379 miles—in Panama 50 miles—in South America 60 miles.

The longest Railway in the world is the Illinois Central, which, with its branches, is 731 miles in length, at a cost of fifteen millions of dollars. The number of miles of railway in the United States exceed the rest of the world by the amount of 2,712.

The total number of railways completed in the United States is 271, the number in the course of construction is 171, the number of miles in operation, 21,528, have been constructed at a cost of $616 766 333. The number of miles in the course of construction is 16 738.

The State of Massachusetts has one mile of railway to each seven square miles of geographical surface. Essex county in that State has one mile of railway to each three square miles of surface.

NO LICENSE IN JANESVILLE.—The Janesville Common Council, by a vote of 9 to 1, have resolved to grant no licenses for the sale of Spirituous liquors during the present year. This resolution was based upon a petition signed by 500 citizens and presented to the Council.

FIRST TRIP OF THE SEASON —The steamer Pacific Capt Clark returned from her first trip down the lake last evening and leaves again for the second at 8 o'clock this morning, and will probably continue on to Sheboygan. The Pacific effected landings at Waukegan and Kenosha. At Racine the bridge piers are broken up, but will be repaired as speedily as possible. When the boat arrived at Milwaukee three thousand people were collected upon and near the pier, and hailed her approach with a round of cheers. The boat (probably) trembled with joy through all her timbers, and run her nose in among the crowd like a favorite animal willing to be petted, the bell began to ring merrily of its own accord, and FILLMORE of the Sentinel, was the first man to jump aboard and anxiously inquire, "Well Captain, what's the news?"—[Chicago Dem Press Saturday.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, FOR DEBILITATED, CONSTITUTIONS DISORDERED LIVERS, AND INDIGESTION —The wonderful efficacy of this salutary medicine, and the good produced on parties suffering from disorders of the stomach, liver complaints, bile, and Indigestion would be incredible, if it were not confirmed by daily proofs of the cures effected by them and the permanent benefit derived from their use. The exhilarating properties of these invaluable Pills, entirely remove all nervous symptoms from the system, strengthen the tone of the stomach, and thereby promote a healthy digestion.

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

The new discoveries and new affinities that medical chemistry is constantly adding to medical science and the healing art, show conclusively how greatly superior the new combinations in the Mustang Liniment are to old preparations, that Liniment being the result of great labor in chemical analysis, is the reason of the great superiority of the new preparation to old mixtures, and the immense sale of it proves how much it is valued by those who have used it, and know its virtues in the cure of bruises, strains, stiff joints, chapped hands, broken breasts swellings or pains, in any part of the body.

A STRANGE THING.

Falsehood in these days is not scarce. Imposition and fraud are not strange. But honesty and truth, especially in speculative business are wonderful. For this reason Dr A L ADAMS' LIVER BALSAM is filling the gaze of thousands upon its cure, curative and surprising, effects in the removal of disease. It promises and fulfils. It promotes excretion in unison with nature's own efforts, and thus expels the very impurities which, being retained generate disease. This compound is considered by those who have used it the greatest medical discovery known. Its praise is declared from the North, the South, and from the East to the West. It is true! It is true!

ARRIVAL OF THE ILLINOIS.

New York, March 13—2 P M

The steamship Illinois from Aspinwall, via Norfolk, arrived at this port about 10 o'clock last evening bringing San Francisco dates of the 16th, one Million one Hundred Sixty Thousand on freight, and about 300 passengers. She sailed from Aspinwall on the 3d, and passed several Spanish vessels of war on the coast of Cuba.—The U. S. steamer Fulton arrived at Aspinwall on the 1st and sailed the following day, on a cruise to the westward

Our dates from Panama and Aspinwall are to March 23

The health of the Isthmus is remarkably good. Cars now pass over the railroad from ocean to ocean

The Panama Star and Herald, Feb 27, says that the passenger tax has at length been disowned by the general government, and the Attorney General has pronounced the whole ordinance relative thereto illegal

There was a rumor at Aspinwall that an attempt had been made to seize a quantity of ammunition on the river above the old Norte, by a party acting under the orders of the U. S. Consul. The natives having charge of the ammunition repulsed the attacking party, and it is reported that one of the latter was very badly wounded by the former.

Our California dates are to February 17th, one week latter. The senatorial question is yet undecided. The 50th ballot had been taken and resulted in no choice. The vote stood as follows, Gwinn 41, Edwards 36, Broderick 17, Roman 15, scattering 5. Several important bills had been introduced into the Legislature, one of which was to exclude all persons from the mines who were not eligible to citizenship

A new political party was talked of, the avowed object of which seems to be to obtain a large delegation from the Pacific States in Congress. Oregon and Washington must be organized into States at once. California must be divided and two States made out of her Territory. The Sandwich Islands must be annexed, and so must Sonora, and as much more of the Territory of Mexico as can be conveniently conquered, purchased or stolen

The treasury of Alameda Co has been robbed of $12,000. The reported discovery of gold on Kern River has produced some excitement at San Francisco

In other parts of the State there is a general complaint of a lack of water, and yet many big strikes are recorded.

The workmen have broken ground on the Sacramento Valley Railroad. The Indian disturbances in the north still continued

All the Western Rivers Rising—St Louis Market.

St. Louis, March 14

The river at this point is rising fast with ten feet water in the channel to Cairo. The Illinois, Upper Mississippi and Missouri rivers are all rising rapidly. Wheat is active with sales of 700 bushels at $1 60 a 1 80

Corn is inactive at 60a65. Oats are dull at 40 a 41. Whisky 25. There is some demand for provisions but the sales are small. Mess Pork is held at $12 50. Prime 1 a 18¼. Hemp dull, no sales. Lead 5½

JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT.—We publish below a correspondence between the Hon Orsamus Cole and a large number of the members of the present legislature and raise the name of Mr Cole as a candidate for associate judge of the supreme court of this state. Last week we stated the issue likely to be drawn into the canvass, and whether wisely or unwisely made a test, it is probable that it will constitute a controlling element in the election. Perhaps it is unfortunate that the mode of electing our state judiciary subjects it to questions of this character, yet in the present case we see no way of avoiding the question in issue, unless those regarding the the fugitive slave law as unconstitutional waive the test, when there is no probability that those approving the opinions of Judge Crawford will disregard them as a test and give their votes to his opponent. The election of Judge Crawford under these circumstances would undoubtedly be claimed by many of his supporters as an endorsement of his peculiar opinions and a popular judgment adverse to the recent action of the court of which he is a member. To this result we are unwilling to contribute.

Mr Cole is well known to the people of this section of the State as a representative in Congress, where he discharged his duties with acceptance to his constituents. Those who know him as a lawyer bear testimony to his qualifications for a Judge. In supporting him ourselves we shall say nothing in disparagement of Judge Crawford. Judge Crawford has unquestionably discharged his duties on the bench ably and well. He possesses many personal good qualities, and has many friends who will actively support his re-election—some from considerations of personal friendship and many from an approval of his opinions upon the fugitive slave law. We know no reason why Mr Cole will not prove his equal on the bench, and liking his position on the issue which will, to a greater or less extent, be forced into the election, better than Judge Crawford's, we adopt Mr Cole as our candidate.—[Janesville Gazette

St. Louis Without Liquor.

Following the example of other cities, the authorities of St Louis resolved to close all the whisky shops on the Sabbath. The resolution was effectually carried out, and the Republican notices the result as follows

A DRY TIME.—Notwithstanding the humid state of the atmosphere, last Sunday might have been called a dry day. The law prohibiting the sale, directly or indirectly, of liquor on the first day of the week, was conformed to with a remarkable degree of strictness. The observance of the day, instead of being partly spirituous, was wholly spiritual. No drunken loafers were on the streets, making either day or night hideous, no half-grown young men were wasting their week's earnings or shouting with maudlin mirth, in our saloons. The warmth of the weather invited many to walk or drive and the invitation was generally accepted, but peaceful happiness seemed to prevail instead of pugnacious frolic.

The levee, to the astonishment of the police was comparatively quiet, the transactions in whiskey being so limited, that the most active reporter would not have noted a sale, at least in public. The calaboose was like some banquet hall deserted for nobody got drunk. In short, St Louis in her corporate capacity, was sober sided and good humored, and though the intemperate guzzlers of intoxicating fluids may be disposed to anathematize our legislators, and though demagogues who wish to catch votes may protest we think that each judicious and right minded citizen will be thankful that the law was, at the very commencement of its operation, so faithfully executed

If closing the rum shops on one day of the week is productive of so great good how much good would result if they were closed all the time?

ACCIDENT.—Some days since Mrs Elizabeth Ward, widow of the late Samuel Ward Esq, was thrown from a sleigh at Newport, St. Clair county where she resided. She received several severe injuries which caused her death. She died yesterday morning, leaving a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.—[Detroit Tribune March 13

IT NEVER RAINS BUT IT POURS.—The telegraph states that Augustus Caesar Dodge has had a long interview with Mr Soule. Poor Mr. Soule! He seems to have no respite from trouble.—[Boston Atlas

The advantages offered by this Company are many, and the public are invited to call upon the Agent and make themselves acquainted with the system adopted by the Company, when they will be better able to decide whether life insurance is desirable or not, and at what Office it is their interest to insure

The many reasons why Fire and Marine Insurance should be adopted are incontrovertible, and Life Insurance, while it in no way interferes with, or undervalues these important institutions, has claims which no other system of insurance can have. Human existence must on consideration, enjoy a much higher estimation than worldly property

While the representative of a family lives, (although, through neglect to insure his property, he become bankrupt,) he supports his family, but at his death, (he also their means of support, unless he has saved them from want by an insurance on his life, which may be done by the payment of a small annual premium, the payment of which has not diminished his own worldly comforts during life

If young, the annual payment will be light, and if insured with profits, the policy will be constantly growing more valuable, though the premium is not increased

Clergymen and others who have a stated and regular income, should insure, well knowing that at their death their families may be left destitute,

Men engaged in mercantile or manufacturing pursuits ever varying and uncertain in their issues should insure

The farmer who has still a mortgage on his farm, should insure, at least to the extent of it, thereby enabling his family to pay off the debt in case of his death

Mustang Liniment and the Ladies.

In our opinion, nothing is above the comprehension of woman, and with less prejudice more liberality and much keener perception than men, when a new idea is presented, a new doctrine taught, or a new fact asserted, she grasps it at once, and with the rapidity and clearness almost of instinct, decides upon its merits or truthfulness, and if her decision be favorable, she enthusiastically advocates and supports it. Thus the common saying has obtained—"Once get the women on your side and you are safe, and we are happy to state that we have the ladies all in favor of the Mustang Liniment. They have tried it for Caked Breasts, Sore Nipples, Sore Chafes, and Burns on Children as well as for Croup and Mumps—Also, for Corns, Tooth Ache, pains in the limbs and joints, sore eyes, Eruptions, Cuts and Bruises and they have always found it effectual—and they go about like angels as they are proclaiming it to their friends and to all they see or hear tell of, who are suffering. We have daily calls for it by persons who say such and such ladies recommended them to try it. Go ladies! in your good Samaritan work, and thousands will bless you for your timely advice

OPPOSITION TO MONOPOLY.

Music at Greatly Reduced Rates

NOTWITHSTANDING the combination of music dealers to keep up the prices of non-copyright music, against the interests of native composers and their refusal to extend to Mr. Waters the courtesies of the trade, he is making tremendous sales—having abundant evidence that he has public countenance and support in his opposition to the Great Monopoly and in his efforts to aid Native Talent, and to adopt the National Currency. His stock of American and European music is immense, and the catalogue of his own publications is one of the largest and best selected in the United States. He has also made a Great Reduction in the prices of Pianos, Melodeons, and Musical Instruments of all kinds. Superior toned 6 octave Pianos for $175, $200 and $225, interior of as good quality, and instruments as strong and as durable as those which cost $500. Pianos of every variety of style and price up to $1000 comprising those of ten different manufactories, among them the celebrated modern improved Horace Waters Pianos, and the first premium Æolian Pianos of T. Gilbert & Co's make, (owner of the Æolian patent.) Second hand Pianos at great bargains. Prices from $40 to $150. Melodeons from five different manufactories, including the well known S. D. & H. W. Smith's melodeons (tuned the equal temperament), the best make in the United States. Prices $45, $60, $75, $100, $115, $125, and $150. Smith's Double Bank Melodeons $200. Each Piano and Melodeon guaranteed. The best terms to the trade, schools, &c. 12½ per cent discount to clergymen and churches. All orders promptly attended to. Music sent to all parts of the country, post paid at the reduced rates. General and select catalogues and schedule of prices of Pianos forwarded to any address, free of charge [illegible] 3moaV&S

ARRIVAL OF THE ILLINOIS.

New York March 13—7 P M

The steamship Illinois from Aspinwall, via Norfolk, arrived at this port about 10 o'clock last evening bringing San Francisco dates of the 16th, one Million one Hundred Sixty Thousand on freight, and about 500 passengers. She sailed from Aspinwall on the 2d, and passed several Spanish vessels of war on the coast of Cuba.—The U. S steamer Fulton arrived at Aspinwall on the 1st and sailed the following day, on a cruise to the westward

Our dates from Panama and Aspinwall are to March 2d

The health of the Isthmus is remarkably good. Cars now pass over the railroad from ocean to ocean

The Panama Star and Herald, Feb 27, says that the passenger tax has at length been disowned by the general government and the Attorney General has pronounced the whole ordinance relative thereto illegal

There was a rumor at Aspinwall that an attempt had been made to seize a quantity of ammunition on the river above the old Navy, by a party acting under the orders of the U. S Consul. The natives having charge of the ammunition repulsed the attacking party, and it is reported that one of the latter was very badly wounded by the former.

Our California dates are to February 17th, one week later. The senatorial question is yet undecided. The 50th ballot had been taken and resulted in no choice. The vote stood as follows, Gwinn 41, Edwards 36, Broderick 17, Roman 15, scattering 5. Several important bills had been introduced into the Legislature, one of which was to exclude all persons from the mines who were not eligible to citizenship

A new political party was talked of, the avowed object of which seems to be to obtain a large delegation from the Pacific States in Congress. Oregon and Washington must be organized into States at once. California must be divided and two States made out of her Territory. The Sandwich Islands must be annexed, and so must Sonora, and as much more of the Territory of Mexico as can be conveniently conquered, purchased or stolen

The treasury of Alameda Co has been robbed of $12,000. The reported discovery of gold on Kern River has produced some excitement at San Francisco

In other parts of the State there is a general complaint of a lack of water, and yet many big strikes are reported.

The workmen have broken ground on the Sacramento Valley Railroad. The Indian disturbances in the north still continued

All the Western Rivers Rising—St Louis Market.

St Louis, March 14

The river at this point is rising fast with ten feet water in the channel to Cairo. The Illinois, Upper Mississippi and Missouri rivers are all raising rapidly. Wheat is active with sales of 7000 bushels at $1 60 a 1 80

Corn is inactive at 60a65. Oats are dull at 40 a 41. Whisky 25. There is some demand for provisions but the sales are small. Mess Pork is held at $12 50. Prime 10 a 10½. Hemp dull, no sales. Lead 5½

JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT.—We publish below a correspondence between the Hon Orsamus Cole and a large number of the members of the present legislature, and raise the name of Mr Cole as a candidate for associate judge of the supreme court of this state. Last week we stated the issue likely to be drawn into the canvass, and whether wisely or unwisely made a test, it is probable that it will constitute a controlling element in the election. Perhaps it is unfortunate that the mode of electing our state judiciary subjects it to questions of this character, yet in the present case we see no way of avoiding the question in issue, unless those regarding the the fugitive slave law as unconstitutional waive the test, when there is no probability that those approving the opinions of Judge Crawford will disregard them as a test and give their votes to his opponent. The election of Judge Crawford under these circumstances would undoubtedly be claimed by many of his supporters as an endorsement of his peculiar opinions and a popular judgment adverse to the recent action of the court of which he is a member. To this result we are unwilling to contribute.

Mr Cole is well known to the people of this section of the State as a representative in Congress, where he discharged his duties with acceptance to his constituents. Those who know him as a lawyer bear testimony to his qualifications for a Judge. In supporting him ourselves we shall say nothing in disparagement of Judge Crawford. Judge Crawford has unquestionably discharged his duties on the bench ably and well. He possesses many personal good qualities, and has many friends who will actively support his re-election—some from considerations of personal friendship and many from an approval of his opinions upon the fugitive slave law. We know no reason why Mr Cole will not prove his equal on the bench, and liking his position on the issue which will, to a greater or less extent, be forced into the election, better than Judge Crawford's, we adopt Mr Cole as our candidate.—[Janesville Gazette

St. Louis Without Liquor.

Following the example of other cities, the authorities of St Louis resolved to close all the whisky shops on the Sabbath. The resolution was effectually carried out, and the Republican notices the result as follows

A DRY TIME.—Notwithstanding the humid state of the atmosphere, last Sunday might have been called a dry day. The law prohibiting the sale, directly or indirectly, of liquor on the first day of the week, was conformed to with a remarkable degree of strictness. The observance of the day, instead of being partly spirituous, was wholly spiritual. No drunken loafers were on the streets, making either day or night hideous, no half-grown young men were wasting their week's earnings or shouting with maudlin mirth, in our saloons. The warmth of the weather invited many to walk or drive, and the invitation was generally accepted, but peaceful happiness seemed to prevail instead of pugnacious frolic.

The levee, to the astonishment of the police was comparatively quiet, the transactions in whiskey being so limited, that the most active reporter would not have noted a sale, at least in public. The calaboose was like some banquet hall deserted, for nobody got drunk. In short, St Louis in her corporate capacity, was sober sided and good humored, and though the intemperate guzzlers of intoxicating fluids may be disposed to anathematize our legislators, and though demagogues who wish to catch votes may protest, we think that each judicious and right minded citizen will be thankful that the law was, at the very commencement of its operation, so faithfully executed

If closing the rum shops on one day of the week is productive of so great good, how much good would result if they were closed all the time?

ACCIDENT.—Some days since Mrs Elizabeth Ward, widow of the late Samuel Ward, Esq, was thrown from a sleigh at Newport, St Clair county, where she resided. She received several severe injuries which caused her death. She died yesterday morning, leaving a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.—[Detroit Tribune, March 17

CAPITAL, - - - $2,500,000.

Guarantee Fund $100,000, Deposited with the Comptroller of the State of New York.

The advantages offered by this Company are many, and the public are invited to call upon the Agent and make themselves acquainted with the system adopted by the Company, when they will be better able to decide whether Life insurance is desirable or not, and at what Office it is their interest to insure

The many reasons why Fire and Marine Insurance should be adopted are incontrovertible, and Life Insurance, while it in no way interferes with, or undervalues these important institutions, has claims which no other system of insurance can have. Human existence must on consideration, enjoy a much higher estimate than worldly property

While the representative of a family lives, (although, through neglect to insure his property, he becomes bankrupt,) he supports his family, but at his death, dies also their means of support, unless he has saved them from want by an insurance on his life, which may be done by the payment of a small annual premium, the payment of which has not diminished his own worldly comforts during life

If young, the annual payment will be light, and if insured with profits, the policy will be constantly growing more valuable, though the premium is not increased

Clergymen and others who have a stated and regular income, should insure, well knowing that at their death their families may be left destitute,

Men engaged in mercantile or manufacturing pursuits ever varying and uncertain in their issues should insure

The farmer who has still a mortgage on his farm, should insure, at least to the extent of it, thereby enabling his family to pay off the debt in case of his death

Mustang Liniment and the Ladies.

In our opinion, nothing is above the comprehension of woman, and with less prejudice, more liberality and much keener perception than men, when a new idea is presented, a new doctrine taught, or a new fact assailed she grasps it at once, and with the rapidity and clearness almost of instinct, decides upon its merits or truthfulness, and if her decision be favorable, she enthusiastically advocates and supports it. Thus the common saying has obtained—"Once get the women on your side and you are safe, and we are happy to state that we have the ladies all in favor of the Mustang Liniment. They have tried it for Caked Breasts, Sore Nipples, horse Chafes, and Burns on Children as well as for Croup and Mumps.—Also, for Corns, Tooth-ache, pains in the limbs and joints, sore eyes, Eruptions, Cuts and Bruises and they have always found it effectual—and they go about like angels as they are proclaiming it to their friends and to all they see or hear tell of, who are suffering. We have daily calls for it by persons who say such and such ladies recommended them to try it. Go on ladies in your good Samaritan work, and thousands will bless you for your timely advice.

OPPOSITION TO MONOPOLY.

Music at Greatly Reduced Rates.

NOTWITHSTANDING the combination of music dealers to keep up the prices of non-copyright music, against the interests of native composers, and their refusal to extend to Mr. Waters the courtesies of the trade, he is making immense sales—having abundant evidence that he has public countenance and support in his opposition to the Great Monopoly, and in his efforts to aid Native Talent, and to adopt the National Currency. His stock of American and European music is immense, and the catalogue of his own publications is one of the largest and best selected in the United States. He has also made a Great Reduction in the prices of Pianos, Melodeons, and Musical Instruments of all kinds. Superior toned 6½ octave Pianos for $175, $200 and $225, interior of as good quality, and instruments as strong and as durable as those which cost $500. Pianos of every variety of style and price up to $1000, comprising those of ten different manufactories, among them the celebrated modern improved Horace Waters Pianos, and the first premium Æolian Pianos of T. Gilbert & Co's make, (owner of the Æolian patent.) Second hand Pianos at great bargains. Prices from $40 to $150. Melodeons from five different manufactories, including the well known S. D. & H. W. Smith's melodeons (tuned the equal temperament,) the best make in the United States. Prices $45, $60, $75, $100, $115, $125, and $150. Smith's Double Bank Melodeons, $200. Each Piano and Melodeon guaranteed. The best terms to the trade, schools, &c. 12½ per cent discount to clergymen and churches. All orders promptly attended to. COOK STOVE,

I have sold the B. J. for the past three years. It has been thoroughly tested by thousands who will testify that it is the most complete Cook Stove that can be. I have four sizes of B. J. There is a summer attachment to the stove which is a great half difference less of the amount of fuel used in the Summer season and does away with all unnecessary heat which other stoves make that have not the attachment. The oven is much larger than any other stove of the same size furniture. I warrant the stove to give complete satisfaction, if not, to be returned and money refunded. TURTON & SERCOMB,

Proprietors,

RESPECTFULLY beg to inform their friends and the public generally, that they continue to manufacture all kinds of

ENGINES,

Cast and Wrought Iron Works, for Grist and Saw Mills. Also, all kinds of Machinery, their well known establishment, Nos. 258 and 300 West Water Street.

They are themselves both practical mechanics, the one a pattern maker of twenty years' experience, the other a moulder of thirty years experience. They likewise only employ none but the very best workmen that can be obtained.

Their stock of patterns cannot be equalled—they have all been made in the city, expressly for the wants of this State and they can and will do better than any similar establishment in this state, and on the shortest notice.

☞ They respectfully call the attention of the public to their ENGINE DEPARTMENT.

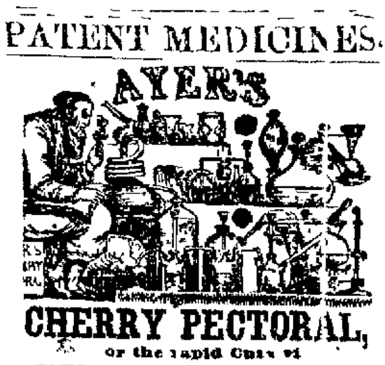
PATENT MEDICINES.



CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

AMONG the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to facilitate the business of life—increase its enjoyments, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art. A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicine or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use, but we would present the following, and refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the agents below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are full particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements.

Office of Transportation, Laurens R. R., S. C., [illegible] 4, 53.

DR. J. C. AYER. Dear Sir:—My little son, four years old, has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten and every person that visited him pronounced him a dead child. Having used your CHERRY PECTORAL in California, in the winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire success, I was induced to try it on my little boy. I gave him a teaspoonful every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by 10 o'clock at night, I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent. For all all classes of the Throat and Lungs I believe it is the best medicine extant. A feeling of the deepest gratitude prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world.

I am yours, with great respect

J. D. POWELL, Supt. Trans., L. R. R.

Rocky Hill, Somerset Co., N. J., July 21, 1852.

DR. J. C. AYER.—Since your medicine has become known here it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold. It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it, and I know of some cases where the best they can say of it is not too much for the good it has done. I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefit it confers.

Please send me a further supply, and believe me

Yours with respect, JOHN C. WHITLOCK.

P. S.—Almost any number of certificates can be sent you if you wish it.

Windsor, C. W., [illegible] 1851.

DR. J. C. AYER—Sir:—This may certify that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL for upwards of one year, and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, and I do not overstate my conviction when I tell you it is a priceless remedy.

Yours very respectfully,

D. A. McCURDIS, Attorney at Law

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 28, 1850.

DR. J. C. AYER—My dear Sir:—Your medicine is much approved by those who have used it here, and its composition is such as to insure and maintain its reputation. I invariably recommend it for pulmonary affections, as do many of our principal physicians. I am your friend,

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT

THIS EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IS STILL working wonders throughout the World, eradicating everything in the form of disease that comes within the circle of its influence.

The People Themselves

have long since adopted it as the only reliable remedy they could rely upon and the thrilling testimony of thousands is fast sweeping away

The Prejudices of the Faculty.

It is extensively used by the Ladies,

Recommended by the learned and Intelligent,

It is used in families and Factories

It is used expressly by all Express Companies,

It is used by Farmers and Livery stable keepers,

It is used by everybody, and all speak in its praise,

Where it is used, pain cannot exist,

The benumbed limbs are made active,

The decrepit and feeble are healed,

The unstrung nerves are made to thrill with joy.

Use the Mustang Liniment.

It is the spontaneous advice of all.

What cured more cases of

than any other medicine extant. Its efficacy in this terrible disease is acknowledged by all who have used it. It not only cures the complaint but at the same time gives vigor and elasticity to the limbs, before unknown—thus performing a double office.

For contractions of the limbs, stiffness of the joints and muscles, hard lumps, swellings and inflammations, it is unrivaled in the power and efficacy of its operation.

For Bruises, Sprains, Cuts and Burns, but a few applications are necessary in order to effect a total cure.

Cancer, or Scrofulous Sores, Tetter, Ringworms, Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Erysipelas, Boils, and Eruptions, can generally be removed in a few days—and the worst cases can be cured in a few weeks at the furtherest. Persons afflicted with these diseases, should be careful in getting the right article to cure them.

Use it upon Your Horses,

for spavin, splint, ring bone, fistula, wind galls, big heads, bruises, strains, string halt, scratches, cracked heels, sweeney, saddle, collar, or harness galls, hard lumps or tumors, film or other diseases of the eye, poll evil, &c.

The finest horses in the city of New York will be found in the stables of the various Express Companies—and they all use totally discarding any other preparation of the kind, and have all given their certificate in testimony.

This we presume will be a sufficient guarantee to induce every one who owns a horse, to give the Mustang a trial.

THERE is no Druggist or Country Store keeper

Who pretends to keep medicine at all,

But what keeps a constant supply of the Mexican Mustang Liniment.

The small size retail for 25 cents per bottle,

The medium sized retails for 50 cents per bottle,

The large size retail for one dollar per bottle,

The medium hold three times as much as the small

The large holds nearly three times as much as the medium.

Therefore the largest bottles are the cheapest.

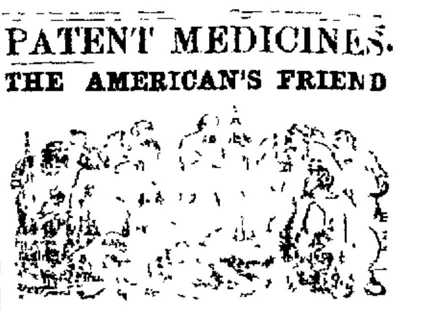
THE AMERICAN'S FRIEND



HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

To the Citizens of the United States:—

I most humbly and sincerely thank you for the immense patronage which you have bestowed upon my Pills. I take this opportunity of stating that my Ancestors were all American Citizens and that I entertain for all Americans the most lively sympathies, so much so that I personally compounded these Pills expressly to suit your climate, habits, constitution and manner of living, intending to establish myself among you, which I have now done, by taking premises in New York. THE BLOOD, LIVER AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS.

The Citizens of the Union suffer much from disorders of the Liver and Stomach. The fair sex, perhaps the most handsome in the World at a certain age lose their teeth and good looks while yet in the heyday of life. These evils may be effectually remedied by commencing by purifying the blood and the liver and stomach with a healthy action, when life will be [illegible] and good health for years. [illegible] in accordance with the directions which accompany each Box.

CURE OF WEAKNESS & DEBILITY OF TEN YEARS STANDING.

Captain John Johnson, of [illegible] House, New York, suffered for many years from a derangement of the liver and stomach and was so reduced in strength that he was unable to go to sea any more, having tried every remedy without deriving benefit. At last he had recourse to Holloway's Pills, which completely cured him, after using them for three months, and he is now in sound health.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:—

MEDICATED INHALATION

A NEW METHOD.

A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. CURTIS, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and all Lung Complaints, by Medical Inhalation. Dr. CURTIS'S HYGEANA, or INHALING HYGEAN VAPOR AND CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the City of New York and vicinity for a few months past, ever known to man. It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the medical profession. (See certificates in hands of Agents.)

The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen, without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid, supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor, passing into all the air cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by any other medicine. Here is a case of

ASTHMA CURED.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. [illegible]th, 1853

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma, for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description, months at a time I have not been able to sleep in a bed, getting what rest I could sitting in my chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr. Curtis's Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued it with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is,—TRY IT.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

New York, Dec. [illegible]th, 1853

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph, my native place is St. John, New Brunswick; when I reached this City my health was very poor; had a very bad cough, raised a great deal of matter which was frequently mixed with blood, had pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physicians pronounced my case Consumption and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life.— Soon after wearing the Inhaler, I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance on the surface under the Inhaler. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it. JOHN WOOD

Sold by BOYD & PAUL, No. 149 Cortlandt street, C. H. RING, corner of John street and Broadway, N. Y. Price $3 a package.

N. B.—Any person inclosing $3 to Boyd & Paul, or Curtis & Perkins, New York, will receive a package containing a bottle of Hygean Vapor, one of Cherry Syrup, and an Inhaler, in a neat box, by express, free to any part of the United States; or four packages for $10. [illegible] lyd&w

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED, AS TREATED BY

DR. E. N. TRIST,

HYGEN & OXYGENIC VAPOR!

DR. TRIST, Graduate of the Royal College of Surgeons of London, and the recipient of diplomas from the Royal Institution of Edinburgh, and Hotel des Invalides of Paris, having settled permanently in New York for the practice of his profession, begs leave to suggest to the citizens of the United States that several years of study and successful experiments in England and Scotland, as well as other parts of Europe, with Consumption in all its forms, enable him to warrant not only relief but a complete cure to all those suffering with this great national disease.

Dr. TRIST deems it unprofessional to advertise, but others having represented themselves as the originators of the Inhalation Treatment, he would say to the afflicted that he alone is entitled to its first introduction, and would caution all against using the useless and dangerous compounds advertised by incompetent persons.

"Take up thy bed and walk."

Dr. TRIST would say to those interested that he has had manufactured, for the use of his patrons, his "Patent Inhaling Tubes," through which the vapor is conveyed to the parts affected, and which he earnestly recommends for the cheering results which have attended their use, and the fact that they may be used by the most feeble in health without any unpleasant symptoms.

To those residing out of the city, Dr. Trist will forward one of the Inhaling Tubes, together with a package of the Vapor, sufficient to last for three months, accompanied with simple directions for use, on receipt of a letter containing Ten Dollars, and describing symptoms.

A cure is warranted in all stages of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all other affections of the Throat, Lungs and Air Passages. In case of failure, the money will be returned.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Afflicted Everywhere.

DR. A. L. ADAMS' LIVER BALSAM

COMES GREETING!

DR. A. L. ADAMS' NEW CURE FOR DISEASE is awakening the inquiry in the minds of all who read it. How is it that A[illegible] has been so long and so lavishly immured in darkness and ignorance on the subject of disease.

The great Panacea of Disease is offered as a cure for all the Sins and Tortures for the cure of Liver Complaints in all stages, Bilious Fever, Coughs, Fever, Chills, Ague, Dropsy of Ascites, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Jaundice, Bowel Complaints, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, General Debility, Nervousness, Costiveness, Indigestion, Female Complaints, &c.

Dr. A. L. Adams' Liver Balsam now enjoys the highest reputation of any remedy before the public and has proved to the most skeptical, beyond a shadow of doubt, that it is the only reliable medicine ever discovered, (it being purely vegetable) for the permanent cure of the above diseases. The most skeptical have been its most sanguine votaries, and pronounce this Liver Balsam to be the only reliable harbinger of health to the afflicted everywhere.

Testimonials come up from every town, as it has been swollen with expressions of gratitude for the relief received by its use. And, in submitting this, the Liver Balsam is recommended to those suffering under the iron grasp of the monster disease, and at once procure a bottle of Dr. A. L. Adams' Liver Balsam.

The reader's attention is called to the perusal of the Medical Circular, which can be obtained of every agent throughout the United States, giving a full exposition of the causes and cure of disease, also, of the certificates of those who have tested its unparalleled success in curing all diseases over the sex which we are all subject.

PATENT MEDICINES.

CHERRY PECTORAL,

or the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

AMONG the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to facilitate the business of life—increase its enjoyments, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art. A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicine or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use, but we would present the following, and refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the agents below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are full particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements.

Office of Transportation, Laurens R R, S C [illegible] 4, 53

Dr. J C. AYER. Dear Sir:—My little son, four years old, has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten and every person that visited him pronounced him a dead child. Having used your CHERRY PECTORAL in California, in the winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchitis with entire success, I was induced to try it on my little boy. I gave him a teaspoonful every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by 10 o'clock at night, I found a decided change for the better; and after three days use he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent. For all the affections of the Throat and Lungs I believe it is the best medicine extant. A feeling of the deepest gratitude prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world.

I am yours, with great respect,

DR. J. C. AYER.—Since your medicine has become known here it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold. It is spoken of in the most unmeasured praise by those who have used it, and I know of some cases where the benefits they can say it is not too much for [illegible] it has done. I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefits it confers.

Please send me a further supply, and believe me

Yours with respect, JOHN C. WHITLOCK.

P. S.—Almost any number of certificates can be sent you if you wish it.

DR. J. C. AYER—Sir:—It is my certainty that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL for upwards of one year, and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, and I do not overstate my conviction when I tell you it is a priceless remedy.

Yours very respectfully, D. A. McCLURG, Attorney at Law

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT

THIS EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IS STILL working wonders throughout the World, and carrying everything in the form of disease that comes within the circle of its influence.

The People Themselves

have long since adopted it as the only safe and sure remedy they could rely upon and the living [illegible] testimony of thousands is fast sweeping away

The Prejudices of the Faculty.

It is extensively used by the ladies,

It is used by Mechanics and Farmers,

It is used in families and factories

It is used extensively by all Express Companies,

It is used by Farmers and Livery stable keepers,

It is used by everybody, and all speak in its praise,

Where it is used, pain cannot exist,

The benumbed limb is made whole again,

The deep ulcers and frost bites are healed

The unstrung nerves are made to vibrate with joy

Use the Mustang Liniment.

It is the spontaneous advice of all

What cured more cases of

than any other medicine. Its efficacy in this terrible disease is acknowledged by all who have used it. It not only cures the complaint but it gives vigor and elasticity to the limbs, before unknown—thus performing a double office.

For contractions of the limbs, stiffness of the joints and muscles, hard lumps, swellings and inflammation, it is unrivalled in the power and efficacy of its operation.

For Bruises, Sprains, Cuts, Scalds and Burns, but a few applications are necessary in order to effect a total cure.

Cancer, or Scrofulous Sores, Tetter, Ringworm, Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Erysipelas, Boils, and Eruptions, can generally be removed in a few days—and the worst cases can be cured in a few weeks at the furtherest. Persons afflicted with these diseases, should be careful in getting the right article to cure them.

Use it upon Your Horses,

for spavin, splint, ring bone, fistula, wind galls, big heads, bruises, strains, string halt, scratches, cracked heels, sweeney, saddle, collar, or harness galls, hard lumps or tumors, film or other diseases of the eye, poll evil &c.

The finest horses in the city of New York will be found in the stables of the various Express Companies—and they all use totally discarding any other preparations of the kind, and have all given their certificates in its favor.

This we presume will be a sufficient guarantee to induce every one who owns a horse, to give the Mustang a trial.

THERE is no Druggist or Country Store keeper

Who pretends to keep medicine at all,

But what keeps a constant supply of the Mexican Mustang Liniment.

The small size retail for 25 cents per bottle,

The medium sized retails for 50 cents per bottle,

The large size retail for one dollar per bottle,

The medium hold three times as much as the small

The large holds nearly three times as much as the medium,

Therefore the largest bottles are the cheapest.

ASTHMA CURED.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Dec. [illegible] th, 1853

For about eight years I have been very severely afflicted with the Asthma, for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description, months at a time I have not been able to sleep in a bed, getting what rest I could sitting in my chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were at times so great that for hours together my friends expected each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr. Curtis's Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued it with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is,—TRY IT.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

NEW YORK, Dec. [illegible] th, 1853

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph; my native place is St. John, New Brunswick; when I reached this city, my health was very poor; had a very bad cough, raised a great deal of matter which was frequently mixed with blood, had pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physicians pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package which I verily believe was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler, I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is very pleasant, and I believe strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it. JOHN WOOD.

MEDICATED INHALATION!

DR. E. N. TRIST,

HYGEN & OXYGENIC VAPOR!

DR. TRIST, Graduate of the Royal College of Surgeons of London and the recipient of diplomas from the Royal Institution of Edinburgh, and Hotel des Invalides of Paris, having settled permanently in New York for the practice of his profession, begs leave to suggest to the citizens of the United States that several series of successful experiments in England and Scotland of study and other parts of Europe, with Consumption in all its forms, enable him to warrant not only relief but a complete cure to all those suffering with this great national disease.

Dr. TRIST deems it unprofessional to advertise, but other persons having represented themselves as the originators of the Inhalation Treatment, he would say to the afflicted that he alone is entitled to its first introduction, and would caution all against using the useless and dangerous compounds advertised by incompetent persons.

"Take up thy bed and walk."

Dr. TRIST would say to those interested that he has had manufactured, for the use of his patrons, his "Patent Inhaling Tubes," through which the vapor is conveyed to the parts affected, and which he earnestly recommends for the cheering results which have attended their use, and the fact that they may be used by the most feeble invalid without any unpleasant symptoms.

To those residing out of the city, Dr. Trist will forward one of the Inhaling Tubes, together with a package of the Vapor, sufficient to last for three months, accompanied with ample directions for use, on receipt of a letter containing Ten Dollars, and describing symptoms.

A cure is warranted in all stages of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all other affections of the Throat, Lungs and Air Passages. In case of failure, the money will be returned.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Afflicted Everywhere,

DR. A. L. ADAMS' LIVER BALSAM

COMES GREETING!

DR. A. L. ADAMS' NEW LIVER BALSAM [illegible] FOR DISEASE is awakening the enquiry in the minds of all who read it. How is it that A medicine has been so long and so lavishly, immured in darkness and ignorance on the subject of disease

DR. A. A. ADAMS' LIVER BALSAM.

The great Panacea of Disease is offered [illegible] for the Sick and Tormented for the cure of Liver Complaints in all stages, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Chills, Chilling Fever, Dropsical Affections, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Jaundice, Bowel Complaints, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, General Debility, Nervousness, Indigestion, Female Complaints, &c.

Dr. A. L. Adams' Liver Balsam now stands in the highest reputation of any remedy before the public and has proved to the most skeptical, beyond a shadow of doubt that it is the only reliable medicine ever discovered (it being purely vegetable) for the permanent cure of the above diseases. The most skeptical have become its most sanguine votaries, and pronounce this Liver Balsam to be the only reliable harbinger of health to the afflicted everywhere. Testimonials come up from every section. It has manswered with expressions of gratitude [illegible] by its use. And, in submitting this [illegible] Liver Balsam is recommended to those suffering under the grasp of the monster disease, and let them procure a bottle of Dr. A. L. Adams' Liver Balsam.

The reader's attention is called to the perusal of the Medical Circular, which can be obtained at every agency throughout the United States, giving a [illegible] the cause and cure of disease, also, [illegible] who have tested its unparalleled success over the [illegible] which we are all subject.
